ing in the evacuations from Okinawa. During March, the last month for which complete figures taxed the ability of ground crews to load the planes with bombs. The seabees noted this. Unasked, and after a full day of work on their own projects, they pitched in and helped the ground crews. Today many superfortresses bear the names of seabee units, a mark of appreciation for the voluntary efforts.

"Wish my Daddy was home to wear it!"

THAT'S a wish your mother shares with you, little lady. She knows, however, your Daddy still has to finish the job that took him so far away from you.

But you may be sure he is counting on you and mother to keep things at home just as he left them—his civilian clothes brushed and fresh—the pup healthy and frisky—a smile on your lips and a song in your hearts.

And remember, there's one thing the Daddy you're lonesome for would especially like to have someone tell him soon in a letter. It's that everyone in your neighborhood really did something handsome this time in buying War Bonds.

Yes, we can all make it easier—mentally as well as physically—for our men and women in uniform, if we prove to them now, with extra War Bonds, that we're with them every step of the last hard miles ahead.
