Fremont High Aids Lazear Day Nursery

For the benefit of the Lazear Day Nursery, Fremont High school students made a large collection of newspapers and salvage in the Junior Red Cross drive just ended.

Five hundred pairs of shoes, hundreds of garments, a box of hats, an ice chest and a stove have been sent from Fremont to the shop, while Mrs. Cotter, in charge of the Lazear Nursery, took a great many of the donated articles, among them twenty high chairs and ten beds to be used in the nursery in which Fremonters have taken such an active interest.

LOSES JEWELS WHILE ASLEEP

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 2.—Diamonds and jewelry valued at $1100 were taken from under the mattress of Mrs. Mary B. Haslett of Los Angeles, while she slept last night in a cottage at a local seaside resort. The thief threw away just outside the house a watch and a chamois bag in which the loot had been tucked away.

For lower rents and food a-plenty, Vote YES, Amendment No. Twenty.—Advertisement.
