This is a Policy of Excess Insurance issued by the Company to the party(s) named in the declarations (hereafter referred to as the "Insured")

A. WHEREAS, THE designated underlying insurors have issued to the Insured policies of insurance listed in Item 1 (Designated Underlying Insurance) of the declarations (which policies, including renewals or replacements thereof on the same basis, are herein called the designated underlying insurance) which are providing the insurance described in Item 2 (Description of Designated Underlying Insurance) of the declarations.

B. NOW, this Policy is to indemnify the Insured in accordance with the applicable insuring agreements, exclusions and conditions of the designated underlying insurance for excess loss as specified in Item 3 (Description of Excess Insurance) of the declarations.

C. The insurance afforded by this Policy shall follow that of the designated underlying insurance except: (1) anything in this Policy or the designated underlying insurance to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated to assume charge of the settlement or defense of any claim or suit brought or proceeding instituted against the Insured, but the Company shall have the right and be given the opportunity to associate with the Insured in the defense or control of any claim, suit or proceeding which appears reasonably likely to involve the Company, in which event the Insured and the Company shall cooperate in all things in the defense or control of such claim, suit or proceeding, but no obligation shall be incurred on behalf of the Company without its consent being first obtained, however, in the event that the amount of the excess loss becomes certain either through trial court judgment or agreement among the Insured, the claimant and the Company, then, the Insured may pay the amount of excess loss to the claimant to effect settlement and, upon submission of due proof thereof, the Company will indemnify the Insured for such payment, or, the Company will, upon request of the Insured, pay such amount to the claimant on behalf of the Insured; (2) the insurance afforded by this Policy shall not apply to any expenses for which insurance is provided in the designated underlying insurance; (3) where amended by endorsement attached hereto.

D. The premium for this Policy is the amount stated in Item 4 of the declarations and is payable upon delivery of this Policy.

E. The Company shall be furnished with copies of designated underlying insurance and all endorsements thereto which in any manner affect this excess insurance as soon as practicable.

F. This Policy may be cancelled by the Named Insured by surrender thereof to the Company or any of its authorized agents, or by mailing to the Company written notice stating when thereafter the cancellation shall be effective. It being agreed however, that in the event of cancellation or termination of the designated underlying insurance, this policy to the extent of such cancellation or termination, shall cease to apply to the same time without notice to the Insured. This policy may be cancelled by the Company by mailing to the Named Insured first named in the declarations at the address shown in this Policy written notice stating when, not less than thirty (30) days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. Provided, however, the Company may cancel this Policy as herein provided, on ten (10) days notice for non-payment of premium due. The mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice. The effective date of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of this Policy. Delivery of such written notice either by the Named Insured or by the Company shall be equivalent to mailing.

If the Named Insured cancels, earned premiums shall be computed in accordance with the customary short rate tables and procedure. If the Company cancels, earned premiums shall be computed pro rata. Premium adjustments may be made either at the time cancellation is effected or as soon as practicable thereafter, but payment or tender of unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.

If this Policy insures more than one Insured, cancellation may be effected by the first of such Named Insureds as named in the declarations for the account of all Insureds; and notice of cancellation by the Company to such first Named Insured shall be notice to all Insureds. Payment of any unearned premium to such first Named Insured shall be for the account of all Insureds.

G. If the period of the designated underlying insurance is not concurrent with the terms of this Policy, it is agreed that for the purpose of determining the Company's liability for loss in excess of the aggregate limits where applicable, of the designated underlying insurance, only loss happening during the term of this Policy shall be included.

RE: CAL UNION POLICY

Dear Cheryl:

Enclosed is a copy of California Union Insurance Company Policy No. ZCX 00 96 56 effective January 1, 1988. We refer your attention to Endorsement No. 22 which extends coverage to Kidde, Inc.; however, it also appears to limit coverage to losses happening during the term of the endorsement. It does not appear that this policy would afford the coverage that was originally anticipated. We await your advise following your perusal.

Very truly yours,
