- J. Laveglia, A2BC

December 1, 1976

AROCLOR 4465

BY to JL; 11/22/76

B. Young
B2ML

Enclosed are the relevant letters in our AROCLOR 4465 file pertaining to your referenced memo. Also enclosed are results of the toxicity studies which were conducted in 1962.

Knowledge that PCB's persisted in the environment resulted from analyses for DDT, a chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticide which structurally resembles PCB's. When this occurred, or when Monsanto employees were aware of this implication and its consequences is beyond the scope of the [redacted].

James Laveglia

/bkp

enc.