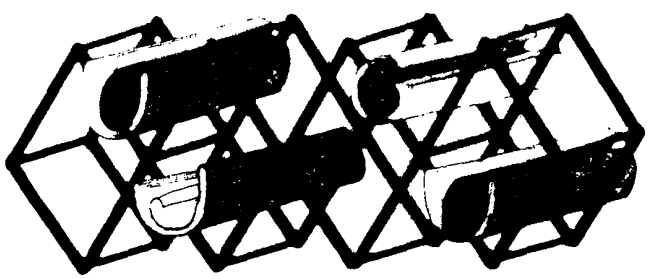
6. Metal or plastic wastepaper baskets make great tool bins hang them in a man's work area

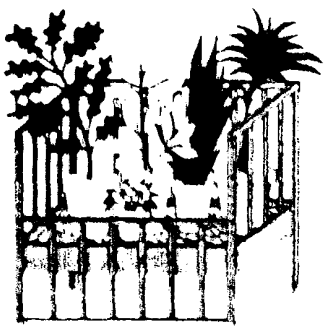
7. Use a wine rack in the living room or den to store magazines, and in a closet to house belts



Valerian Rybar

8. Frame bright-print place mats and use to decorate the walls of a kitchen or dining area.

9. With bright paint and imagination, an empty television cabinet can become a children's puppet theater



10. Repaint a spindle crib and fill it with potted plants. Place it in the dining room window to create an unusual effect

Or: A unique birdcage can be turned into an attractive holder for plants

11. Living room side tables can be painted a bright lacquer color or skirted and used as night tables in the bedroom

12. Utilize printed fabric curtains that do not fit your new windows in unique ways: make window shades, place mats, napkins, tablecloth, cover lampshades, books, boxes or make a dressing-table skirt

13. Bath hampers can be repainted, treated with decals or covered with fabric, and used for storing toys in a child's room.

14. A music stand, painted to blend with kitchen decor, makes an ideal rack for holding a cookbook open while you prepare a recipe

15. Wall-to-wall carpet or a large area rug that either does not fit in a new home or is to be replaced can be cut up and fringed to make throw rugs in a children's room or extra bedroom.
