Dear Doug:

This is a follow up to earlier correspondence to determine whether or not you have been able to get any kind of a definite answer out of OSHA office St. Louis to give us a guide line as to a reasonable cutoff date following an annual physical, afterwhich another physical might be required in the event of a layoff or discharge--specifically a layoff, because on a discharge we would want another physical regardless. On a layoff, have they been able to come up with any kind of a reasonable guide line. Please follow and advise.

Cordially yours,

. . . . Julius
