It was made clear yesterday that the Methodist Church would enter a strong protest when the matter of the new bill board in its immediate vicinity is brought before it.

RANCH OWNERS ARRIVE TO VISIT WITH SON

After an 8-day automobile trip from Versailles, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. George Shelton arrived at their ranch, corner of Fisher and Murphy avenues. They were accompanied by their son, Jack.

The trip from the east was made in a new Packard and was without incident except for the several severe windstorms encountered. They expect to visit at the ranch for several weeks.

For the last two years the Shelton ranch has been operated by the couple's son, Ernest Shelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Webster of San Francisco, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Johnson.

The Pleasant Bridge club of Coyote was entertained at the home of Mrs. Alex Zabel's daughter, Mrs. Elmer Evans of Menlo Park.

Mrs. Salome Phelps has returned from a visit in Redwood City.
