Dear Dr. Kehoe:

I acknowledge your letter of January 6th together with report of Dr. Schradin on the examination of Mr. E. E. Osterhout.

May I again thank you for your usual close cooperation.

I would also like you to know that your advice with regard to the use of Trichlorethylene was greatly appreciated. We are advising other departments of our organization who would be interested in this matter of your views.

Sincerely,

E. R. ALDEN
