West's Only Isle Of Spices: Grenade

ST. GEORGES, Grenada—The W e s t e r n Hemisphere's only spice island is Grenada, south ernmost of the Windwards. This British speck in the Caribbean does a multimillion-dollar busi ness every year in producing and exporting nutmeg products, such as mace.

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

It is a sound idea to lead a trump when you have third or fourth card against each suit. Declarer must ruff as side suit in dummy. It is a poor idea to lead a trump when declarer has set up dummy's long suit instead of his own.

West discovered he had made the wrong lead as soon as he saw the dummy. He had sought to establish control over South instead of striking a blow for his own side.

South drew four rounds of trumps and led diamonds to force out the ace. East returned a heart. But South stepped up with the ace of hearts and led a club to dummy's ace. Then he discarded all of his losers on the diamonds, making a total of 12 tricks.

South must try the heart fi nesse after taking the ace of clubs, whereupon West can take the king of hearts and continue the rubs. South ruffs one third round of clubs and tries to ruff a heart in dummy, whereupon East overruffs and returns a trump. South loses two hearts, one over ruff, a diamond and a club, making only eight tricks instead of 12.
