Condition of Sgt. York Is "Serious"

PALL MALL, Tenn, May 9 (AP) Sgt. Alvin C. York, 62-year-old hero of World War I is in "serious" condition but refuses to go to a hospital

Doctors said York suffered diahrrea, intense vomiting and a recurrence of colitis late last week Members of the family said the Congressional Medal of Honor winner also suffered a slight stroke, the second in a year.

"We have tried to get him to go to a hospital," his physicians said, "but he insists on staying at home."

"He might pull through this and live for several years," they added, "but his condition now is serious"

Professors For Atom Commission

WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP) — President Truman today named two college professors, Gordon Dean, and Henry DeWolf Smyth, as members of the Atomic Energy Commission.

He sent the nominations to the Senate after accepting the resignation of Robert F Bacher as a commission member, effective tomorrow William W. Waymack previously had resigned.

Dean is professor of law at the University of Southern California and a practicing attorney

Smyth is a professor and chairman of the department of physics at Princeton University.
