page 3

population.

gan Hill is incorporated. The ation of the town is nearly 1,000, ary country 3,500. Many substanresidences have been built, among a number of two-story dwellings cottages of the latest and most some architectural design.

two-story stone bank building is ome of the Bank of Morgan Hill, h has a capital stock of $50,000. e are also five general merchandise s, two plumbing and machine shops ge hardware store, an agricultural rment store, hotel, two boarding es, meat market, bakery, vegeta-and fruit store, drug store, stand, harness shop, two shoe ps, two barber shops, two black-th shops, a cyclery, livery stable, sing mill and lumber yard, painter paper hanger, contractor and ilder, four real estate firms, three docs, a dentist, an attorney, water works, plant, telephone system which exds to all the outlying orchards and ms, a nursery of State-wide reputan a fire company. We have no loons.

A 250,000 gallon reservoir on Nob ll, 200 feet above the town gives a essure sufficient to throw two streams water over the tallest buildings in wn, thus insuring a fine fire protection.

Three rural routes distribute the mail the outlying sections. Bisceglia rothers Cannery, the Morgan Hill Can-ing and Packing Company, and Griffin Skelly packing house give employment to a large number of hands during the packing season. The Morgan Hill Weekly TIMES is now in its tenth year, and has a large circulation, covering its field quite thoroughly.

Within four miles of Morgan, over fine highways, may be found delightful camping and picnic grounds beside [illegible] of the

Hats and Caps

MORGAN HILL MERCANTILE COMPANY

General Merchants Phone Main 231

A. B. IMUS

HARDWARE, IMPLEMENTS, STUDEBAKER VEHICLES AND AERMOTOR WIND MILLS

Oil Heaters .....$3.50 to $5.00	Nason's Paints .....per gal.. $1.85
Tin Cans.....3 doz. $1 25	Universal Bread Mixers, each $2 00

PHONE MAIN 188

Cor. Monterey St. and Encino Ave. MORGAN HILL

"USE UNCLE SAM"

Do not think that it is difficult to do a [illegible] business simply because you live a