pied most of the remaining time, with Stanley Ollason as chairman of the day. Plans for entertainment of outside visitors at the county fair next week, as well as delegates to the state Elks association and traffic officers convention, were touched upon, and announcement was made of a district meeting to be held Saturday noon at Stanford union, Palo Alto, and the Kiwanis state convention at Oakland November 13-15.

Next week's Kiwanis meeting will be held Tuesday noon at Hotel Del Monte, jointly with the other local service clubs, as a preliminary rally for the county fair, which opens the following day.

all the rural elementary schools of the county.

The exhibits will consist mostly of general art work, industrial art work, manual training products and shop work displays.

AVAILABLE STABLE SPACE EXHAUSTED

Stable space at the Monterey County Fair race track is gone.

So large has been the request for entries in the feature flat racing and steeplechasing during the fair meeting, October 8 to 12, at Monterey, that no further allotment of space can be made.

More than 125 horses have already arrived at the track from nearly from twenty to twenty-five.

ADMISSION BOOKS OFFER BIG SAVING

Admission books for the Monterey County Fair, containing $6 worth of tickets, will be on sale for $5 only until opening day of the fair. Those who expect to visit the fair have been urgently requested to make possible the large saving offered by purchasing their admission books at once.

More than a score of boxes in excellent locations may still be secured. Each box, seating six people, is priced at $100 and to each holder of a box privilege is accorded free admission to the grounds and to the section at the race track at any of the day or night performances.
