Mild Temperatures

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A late spring chill in upper regions of the Midwest and showers and thunderstorms over much of the nation marked the early stages of the long Memorial Day weekend today.

Temperatures dipped into the upper 30s in northern portions of the Midwest and snow flurries developed over upper Michigan.

Warm weather was the rule in the southern half of the nation.

Scattered showers and thundershowers broke out over the Atlantic and Gulf states and across the northern Rockies. Locally heavy rains soaked southern New England.

State Weather

Northern and Central California can expect generally fair weather with variable high cloudiness through Sunday.

Cloudy weather will prevail near the coast. There will be little temperature change except slight cooling in the interior.

SUMMARY

Monterey Bay and Santa Maria-San Luis Obispo Coastal Areas — Mostly cloudy through Sunday but partial afternoon clearing inland. Westerly afternoon winds 10 to 15 knots.

Northern and Central California — Mostly fair through Sunday but variable high cloudiness. Cloudy near coast. Little temperature change.

Southern California — Night and morning clouds and local drizzles from coast inland to coastal slopes of the mountains otherwise mostly sunny today and Sunday. Not much temperature change.

Weather Forecast

Showers are forecast tonight for the southern Plains, Great Basin, Tennessee Valley and southern New England. It will be warmer in northern Texas and colder in the northern Plateau, New England and mid-Atlantic states, mid-Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the lower Great Plains.

Monterey Bay Temperatures

Monterey Bay Area high and low temperatures for 24 hours to 8 a.m. today were reported as follows:

Carmel, 59-50; Carmel Valley, 64—; Marina, 58-51; Monterey Peninsula Airport, 58-50; Salinas, 61-51; Santa Cruz, 61-48.

Castro Puts His Forces On an Alert

HAVANA (AP) — Prime minister Fidel Castro said Friday night he is convinced the United States is planning "armed aggression" against Cuba and ordered a state of alert for Cuba's 100,000-man armed forces.

In a communique read over radio and television, Castro accused Secretary of State Dean Rusk of "practically threatening us with war" over armed clashes between U.S. and Cuban forces along the perimeter of the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo in southeastern Cuba.

President Osvaldo Dorticos immediately called in the ambassadors of Communist countries and asked for volunteers "willing to aid Cuba against the threat of aggression by Yankee imperialism."

Castro said the U.S. Defense Department lied in claiming that six Cuban soldiers penetrated the U.S. base Monday and exchanged fire with American guards.

Rusk told a news conference Friday the United States had protested the incident and demanded that such actions stop. A Defense Department spokesman said as far as is known no one was injured in the exchange of gunfire.

Probe by Spain, France

Six French Jets Crash

HUELVA, Spain (AP) — The crash of six French jet fighters in southwestern Spain Friday touched off an immediate investigation by Spanish and French officials.

All six pilots parachuted to safety before their Mystere IV planes crashed in a swampy pasture area near this Atlantic port 280 miles southwest of Madrid, authorities said.

$600,000 Each

French consular officials in Sevilla, the intended destination of the 580-mile training flight from Bordeaux, France, said none of the pilots was seriously hurt and they would be returned today to their French base.

The French Defense Ministry said the unarmed $600,000 jets became lost in flight "for an undetermined reason" and had not been able to land at Sevilla, probably because of bad weather. They crashed later due to lack of fuel, the ministry said.

One pilot, Capt. Bertrand Olivier, 27, said the men lost their way because of cloudy skies over Sevilla Province and lost radio contact with San Pablo airport at Sevilla, less than 25 miles away.

Investigators were expected to ask why the pilots abandoned their planes near Huelva, 50 miles west of Sevila, instead of trying to land at two well-equipped airports not far away: the U.S.-Spanish base at Moron, 35 miles southeast of Sevilla, or the U.S.-Spanish base at Rota, on the Atlantic 55 miles southwest of Sevilla.

Watts Master Plan

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A new master plan for redevelopment of Watts and the rest of southeast Los Angeles has been approved by the City Planning Commission and sent to the City Council.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk has ruled out any major withdrawal of U.S. troops from Germany. He said European allies have been assured "our forces will remain there as long as they are needed and wanted."

Rusk also told a news conference Friday he hopes members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization can reach firm decisions soon on plans for removing NATO's military headquarters and bases from France.
