epidemiology at Johns Hopkins School of Mental Health, the Mental Hygiene Department.

Q And does that pretty much complete your education?

A That was '83 or '84, and then I did a visiting scientist post-doc fellowship at the Center For Disease Control in Atlanta, Georgia, for a year, and I think that was like in '86 or '87 and came back to Baltimore.

Q Dr. Wood, how old are you?

A Forty-three.

Q And are you married or single?

A I am a single man.

Q You are the son of Nollie and Rosanna Wood; is that correct?

A That is correct.

Q And do you have any brothers or sisters?

A No, I am an only child.

Q As a child growing up over the years, can you just describe what types of activities your family did together?
