GETZOFF OFFERS FURTHER CHARGE AGAINST KEYES

LOS ANGELES, April 3 —(UP)— In what may be a deathbed document, further charges concerning the corruption of former District Attorney Asa Keyes were filed today by Ben Getzoff, convicted with Keyes of bribery conspiracy.

In a letter to editors of local newspapers he said that if he regains his health and is given the opportunity he will take the witness stand and prove that testimony of Jack Bennett that money was paid to Keyes through Getzoff to obtain dismissal of all gambling received.

Getzoff also said he received $22,000 in cash through him from Jacob Berman, another indictment defendant, in addition to $10,000 from Berman collected after three trips to the Getzoff sailor shop.

And although Hoover is now president of the United States as they always wanted him to be, he knowed he decided feeling one way or the other.

BROTHERLY LOVE

CRISWOLD, Ia., April 3.—(AP)—Miss Frances Hall, 20, a recent Saturday evening. He started out the day before to get the license. Mud marooned him outside of town, and on the morning of the wedding he called his brother, Malcolm, and asked him to go by train to Atlanta and get the license. The train had gone at the time so Malcolm, another brother and Stewart Forsyth started off in a car. The car balked, and refused to be started again. The three of them walked 11 miles, got the license, and walked back 18 miles to give it to Parker.

Troubled no longer by spells of dizziness

Bothered with stomach and neck so his life, this man was subject to such spells of dizziness that he could hardly stand up. "I haven't had a dizzy spell since I began taking Agmel," he writes. Letters from people benefited by Agmel are received daily. One says: "A siege of influenza left me so weak I could scarcely get around. Then I started to take Agmel. I now feel so well I can't seem to realize my good fortune."
