to get—me to sell peaches on Sunday. It would be wrong. If all my orchard was piled as high as I could see with money I wouldn't sell a peach on Sunday. I wouldn't barter my soul for gold."

"SICKLY HYMNS."

LONDON.—Rev. E. L. Weight of Windsor characterized the hymns now sung in churches as "sickly," written by sufferers from indigestion.

The home smiles welcome

THE CORDIALITY expressed by friends and relatives is doubly pleasant if the home to which you are welcomed is attractive. The freshly painted house, smiling there in the sunshine, doesn't really say, "Come on in!" but it looks the invitation.

Your home too, can express the warmth of your hospitality, if you keep it looking its best — if you paint it every few years with

BASS-HUETER
Pure Mixed Paint

This paint is made in the West to meet Western climatic conditions. It contains only the best materials—pure lead and pure zinc, ground in refined linseed oil. On that account, it covers well, goes further and will wear longer than an ordinary paint. Since the cost of the best paint is but a fraction of the cost of having your house painted, you will see the economy of using BASS-HUETER Pure Mixed Paint.

BASS-HUETER Paints and Varnishes can be had from the following dealers:

While preparing a meal, or tidying about the kitchen, how many times must you dry your hands? How often have you been annoyed because the kitchen towel had become damp with use—and unpleasant?

Put up the handy Crinklet holder—have a clean, fresh, soft towel every time! You'll be delighted to find Crinklets really dry thoroughly and instantly, no matter how soaked your hands may be. A Crinklet will absorb eight times its weight of water—in much less time than it takes to tell about it.

You'll be pleasantly surprised, too, as you find your Crinklets have many other uses about your home—more uses than one might imagine.

Use them for polishing glassware, windows and mirrors, for cleaning greasy pans and greasy stoves, for lifting hot utensils, to hold your vegetable parings or other debris from the meal's pre-
