The dead were identified by Deputy Coroner Del McCune, of Vacaville, as Milton Weaver, about 35, Joyce Road, Richmond, and Mrs. Rosalyn Noble Ramser, about 27, Richmond. Weaver's sister-in-law, Mrs. Doris Weaver, lives at Oakland.

Injured were Robert Lee Odum, 23, of the San Pablo address, and Mary Noble, 32, 568 Third Avenue, Richmond. Yolo General Hospital authorities in Woodland said Odum had lacerations of the face and upper body but was not seriously hurt. Miss Noble, who suffered head injuries and lacerations, was said to be "possibly serious."

EZRA L. GIBBONS

Funeral services were held this afternoon from John Dowdle Mortuary for Ezra L. Gibbons, 84, retired San Jose transfer business operator. He died Monday in a local hospital.

Interment in Oak Hill Memorial Park followed rites conducted by Rev. Mark Rifenbark, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Survivors are four sons: John, Harold, Lester and Edwards Gibbons of San Jose; one sister, Emma Nickells, San Diego, and three grandchildren and one great-grandchild, all of San José.

Gibbons was a native of Pennsylvania.

...thorne Way, the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnes.

Mrs. Dollings, a former Palo Alto resident, was a Red Cross worker during both World Wars. She was a member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Dwight Small conducted the services at the Alta Mesa Memorial Park.

Mrs. Dollings leaves, in addition to her daughter here four other children, George K. Dollings of Burlingame, A. A. Dollings of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. May Zinsmaster of San Jose and Mrs. Ruth Gorman of Sonora. She also leaves 11 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and twin great-great-grand daughters.

Salvation Army Case Goes to High Court

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 13 (INS). The Michigan Supreme Court will hear the appeal of the Salvation Army for a share of the $4,000,000 estate of the late hotel magnate, Earle R. Milner.

The court granted a "stay and an appeal" providing division of the estate among the dozen heirs can be held up until the Salvation Army's case is heard.
