Table Displays At Dohrmann's

A store-wide showing of table settings will be held all this week at Dohrmann's in Union Square.

Virginia Stanton, party editor of House Beautiful magazine, will design and execute the more than fifteen settings comprising the display.

Featured will be settings for formal and informal occasions, breakfasts, small dinner parties, banquets and barbecues.

Flowers will be arranged by Podesta and Baldocchi and custom-made cloths will be supplied by the fabric house of Scalamandre.

Another feature of the event will be the showing of many new items in china, glass, silver and decorative table accessories.

didn't want any one to think that O'Keeffe has done anything really illegal— "he just used bad judgment."

But O'Keeffe would not stand still for even this definition of his actions.

"I told Joe Martin a long time ago," he said, "that his estimators were doing a rotten job, and that I'd fire them if they were mine.

"I told him this was typical of the problem, this estimate that was 46 per cent away from the low bid. Joe apparently gathered that I was recommending acceptance of the low bid at M & K's behest.

"I was doing nothing of the kind. I was not approached by any one at M & K, there was no influence used or attempted. Mine was only a criticism of the PUC staff and a suggestion that if we delayed the cost would go up even more.

"If this displeases the mayor, I can't help it."

POINTS TO COSTS.

O'Keeffe pointed to the added costs of the Portola Drive repairs and the underground exhibit hall as typical
