M. HECTOR FABRE DIES IN FRANCE

Had Been Prominent Figure in French Politics for Many Years.

...the Associated Press

Versailles, France, Sept. 2.—M. Hector Fabre, Canadian consulting officer general in France, died here today of dropsy. He was born in Montreal Aug. 9, 1834.

M. Fabre was engaged in journalism for a number of years, and in 1878 was an unsuccessful candidate for a seat in the house of commons. He was called to the senate in 1882 and was appointed agent for the Dominion government at Paris in 1882, retaining which he resigned his seat in the senate.

M. Fabre died at his home in the Rue Congrenes. His wife was with him when the end came. He had been ill since January, but insisted upon keeping up his duties here by going regularly to his office in Paris.

M. Fabre's death caused a shock in official circles here, where he had many friends. Throughout his service of more than fifty years he had formed a wide acquaintance with public men of France and was highly regarded.
