MR. IGNATOWSKI: Yes, when we put in the exhibits.

THE COURT: I was looking for the Italian.

MR. IGNATOWSKI: In September of 1952, again, our number IHF Number 37, offered against Owens-Illinois and Ford, Asbestosis Associated with Bronchogenic Carcinoma, in the Archives of Internal Medicine, September of 1951.

Back to IHF Number 41 offered against all three, because at that time they were members at the relevant time. All three, and it was June of 1953. The Clinical Picture and Pathology of Asbestosis, German article. Lung Carcinoma Caused by Asbestos Inhalation, German article, 1953.

IHF Number 45, September of 1954, Mineral Content of the Lungs After Exposure to Asbestos Dust, in the Archives of Industrial Hygiene and Occupational Medicine.

Number IHF-46, December of 1954. Early Diagnosis of Asbestosis by Enlarged Radiographs, a German article, March of 1954.