Past Cricket Field -- Duck

LONDON (AP) — The House of Lords served warning on one and all today—when walking past a cricket field, don't forget to duck.

People beaned by home run balls from inside the park, the lords ruled cannot collect from the club for their injuries It isn't cricket.

"The existence of some risk," said the lords "is an ordinary incident of life"

The ruling came on a lawsuit brought by Miss Bessie Stone, aged 56, against the Cheetham Cricket Club of Manchester Miss Stone was hit on the head last year by a ball slammed for six—a cricket homer—by a Cheetham Babe Ruth A six is a ball hit plumb out of the park, which scores six runs for the batsman

A lower court had awarded Miss Stone £105 ($294) The club appealed to Lords, the highest legal tribunal in Britain It won.

India Will Barter For Russian Wheat

NEW DELHI (AP) — India announced today she would pay in barter—not cash, as previously announced—for the 50,000 tons of wheat she is getting from Russia

An official spokesman said terms of the barter agreement still are being negotiated but that the Soviet Union had dispatched the first cargoes while the talks still are underway

OTTAWA, Ill (AP) — The 102-year-old Waltham Presbyterian Church is taking a hip from the movies: it will hold drive-in services this summer

Worshippers will park their cars at the rural church 16 miles northwest of Ottawa, remain in them and listen to sermons via loudspeakers.

The first of the non-denominational drive-in services featuring visiting ministers will be held the evening of June 10
