Diana Bartolanzo,

Here is the information you needed on our contributions to the East St. Louis school district. I apologize for the delay in getting this to you. Better late than never!?

Football Uniforms, East St. Louis High School -- 1989

The Monsanto Fund donated $3,000 to help the team purchase badly-needed football uniforms.

Tell Me Why videotapes -- 1989-90

The Monsanto Fund sponsored "Tell Me Why" science videotapes for grade schools throughout the East St. Louis school district, at $3,700 per year.

McHenry Science Program -- 1989-90

The Monsanto Fund helped launch and sponsored an innovative after-school science program coordinated by administrator Frederick Birth at McHenry Elementary School, at $5,000 per year. The contribution also supported a district-wide science fair at the end of the 1990-91 school year.

Operation Sunshine -- 1991

The Monsanto Fund donated $10,000 this year to help Mr. Birth expand the science program district-wide. The program is a hands-on botany program that will give the students the opportunity to learn about botany both in the classroom and by landscaping their school grounds.

Football Uniforms, Lincoln High School -- 1991

The Monsanto Fund donated $1,000 to help purchase new football uniforms.

Other Monsanto support for East St. Louis youths:

-- WGK professionals visit East St. Louis schools to talk about science and careers through a Boy Scouts in-school career program.
-- WGK sponsors the Boy Scouts Explorer career program at the plant each fall.
-- WGK sponsors two Junior Achievement companies and provides volunteers.
-- The Monsanto Fund donated $5,000 to develop a youth business training program at the GEMM cultural/media center.
-- WGK pays for daily Belleville News Democrat newspapers available for classroom use at the Vincent Gray Alternative High School.
-- The Monsanto Fund donated $3,700 in 1989, 90 and 91 to sponsor summer field trips for youths living in ESL housing projects, and donated $18,500 to start an after school center at DeShields housing project.
-- The Monsanto Fund donates $2,000 per year each to the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts to support programs for underprivileged youths.

Let me know if you need more information. Again, sorry for the delay.
