Living in half-a-house?

Why go on living in a house that's half-convenient, half-attractive—half the house you'd like to live in? Remodeling magic with fire-resistant RED TOP* Plasters make it easier than ever to make your home completely convenient, completely attractive. Unsightly, non-functional closets and hallways, poorly planned rooms, cramped living quarters—all yield to the modern miracle of plaster. (Takes less time and money than you'd imagine, too!) So make your plans now to remodel with—plaster, to be sure.

try these ideas for better living

A mark of good planning—attic louvers

Modern heating, insulating require the attic ventilation USG Aluminum Louvers provide. They last a "housetime."

Functional planning easy with plaster

Restore defective walls and ceilings—and re-plan for real convenience.

It's never too late to insulate

To save on labor costs, plaster over insulating ROCKLATH* plaster base when you remodel. It's also a vapor barrier.

Sound condition your ceilings

Amazing how SABINITE* or RED TOP Acoustical Plaster absorbs noise. Use over old ceilings, too!

Better basement light and ventilation

USG* Basement Sash opens smoothly, fits tight, provides the protection your home deserves. Sizes for any home.
