June 10, 1925

Mr. Ernest T. Trigg
322 Race Street
Philadelphia, Pa.

My dear Trigg:

In the matter of secretaryship for the Sesquicentennial Exposition, I have arranged to appoint Mr. George Ackerson, who for many years was an important newspaper correspondent here, and is now returning to take up that work.

I have the notion that aside from his abilities as the actual liaison officer, he will be of great use to the Exposition from a publicity point of view.

Yours faithfully

HH.AGS.