ERS GUIDE, 1928

ed by the general
ower the humidity
ie same degree of

ietric rooms of the
EATING AND VEN-
the psychrometric
ata obtained is to
clusive, and in the

ort, in still air, for effect of air motion
rmally clothed are
arious moving air

TABLES

ure is plotted as is ordinates. The perature gives the
elative humidities irved lines similar or all atmospheric ie lines. Effective arallel lines which temperatures and
. The numerical
n by the dry bulb
curve.

air as determined
curately indicate a
a person will feel
if the humidity is

air but that which
it for a sufficient
i is not thoroughly
with the wet bulb
wet with perspira-
le at low tempera-
arly in accordance

ined scale which sure or index of a temperature and
perature a person
rdless of the dry

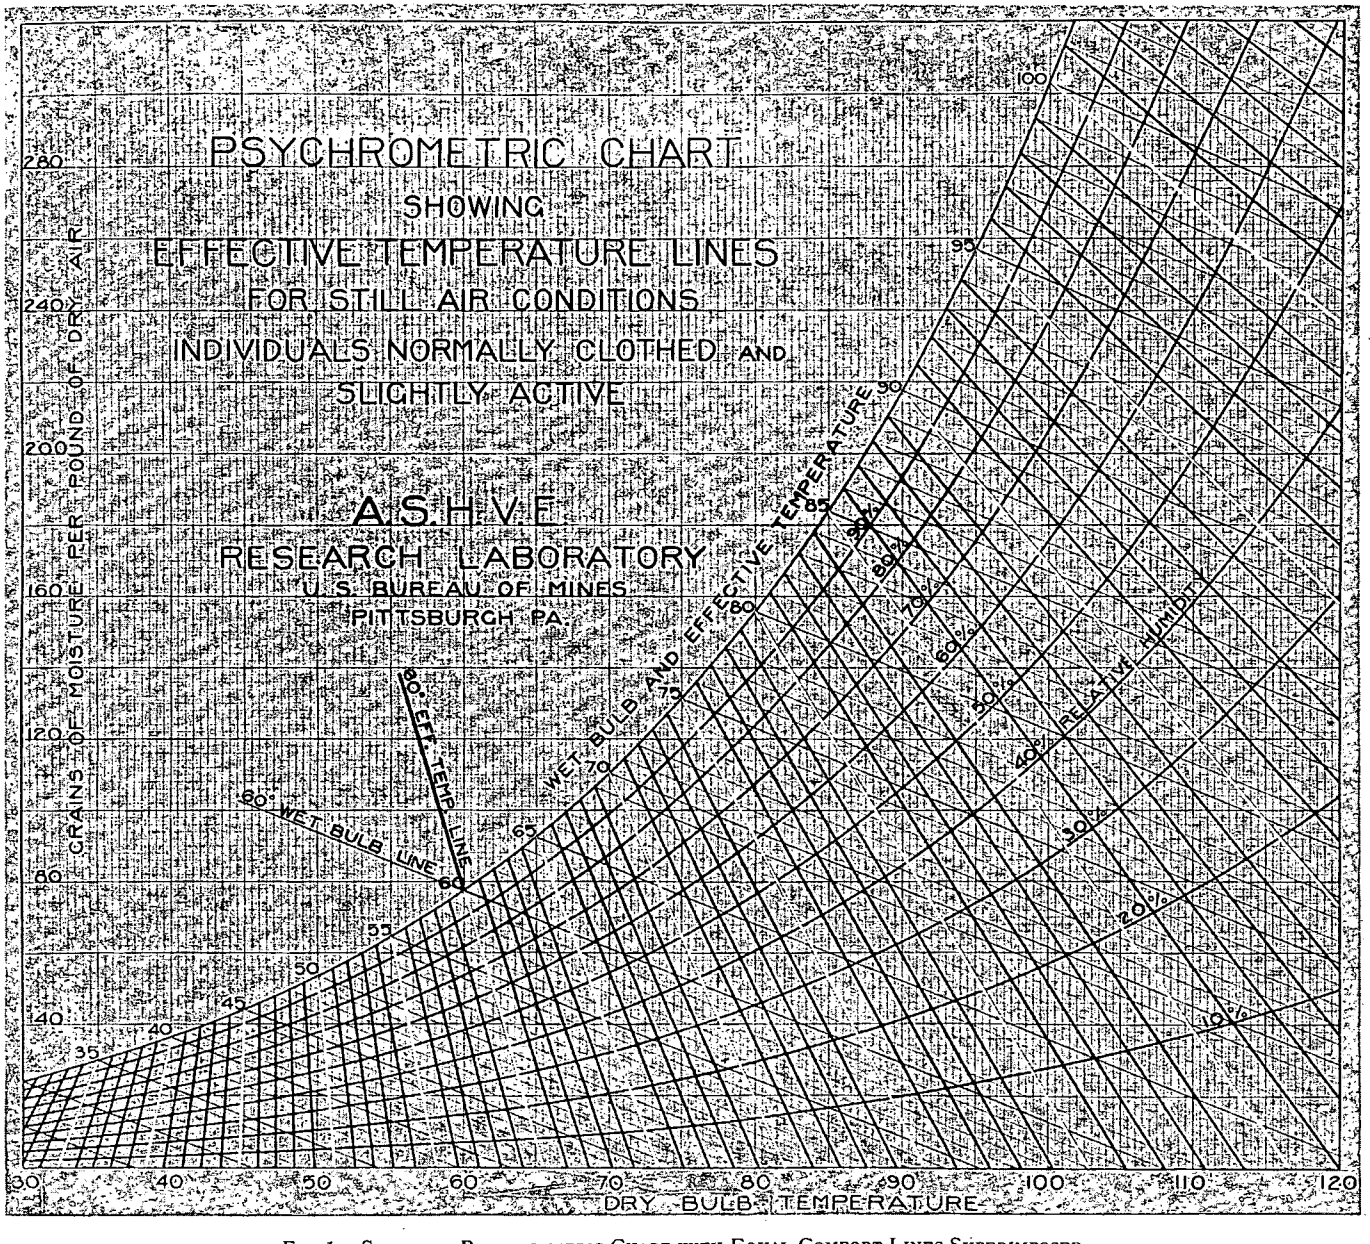

FIG. 1. STANDARD PSYCHROMETRIC CHART WITH EQUAL COMFORT LINES SUPERIMPOSED