Now we come to the typically Augusta home. This slate surfaced shingled residence, with its cut-back gable ends, arches and smooth white plaster walls, we feel is worthy of a place in our community. The floor plan is all that could be desired, and every room is marked up with as few spaces. All necessary built-ins and hardwood floors in the specifications.

could be duplicated for approximately $5700.

TRADE TREATY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 4.—(U.P.)—A treaty of commerce between Turkey and Soviet Russia is expected to be signed at Angora within a few days, it was learned today. The treaty is said to provide for the exchange of consuls and the importation of goods between the two countries. Pending the formal signing of the treaty, it was learned, the Russian trade delegation now in Angora will remain there to negotiate with the Turkish government for the establishment of a Russian trade bureau in Constantinople. The treaty is said to provide that Russia may send goods to Turkey and receive Turkish products in return, subject to custom duties allowed between the two countries. Turkish traders are free to go to Russia at any time and to sell their wares to whomsoever they please.
