MR. FLOYD: No further questions.

You gentlemen may inquire.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. WUESTLING:

Q Mr. Ridenour, my name is Rick Wuestling, I represent H. Porter in this lawsuit.

Are you familiar or have you seen Ford's Answers to Interrogatories in this case?

MR. KRAUSE: He has already said he has not.

Q (BY MR. WUESTLING) Do you know a gentleman named Mr. Robert Sanborn?

A No, I do not.

Q You never heard that name before?

A I may have heard the name. I do not know the gentleman.

Q Mr. Sanborn signed these Interrogatories for Ford. Did you assist in the preparation of the Answers to these Interrogatories?

A Not that I recall.

Q Do you know of anyone who did assist in the preparation of these Answers to Interrogatories?

A No.

Q For instance, let's look at what you have before you --

A Could I have that last question back again?

Q Do you know of anyone who did, in fact, work or prepare the Answers to these Interrogatories?
