SAN DIEGO SUNDAY UNION OCT. 14 1928

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 30 (A.P.)—

Thornewill, Canadian m... in the mount... nologists ... new evidence ... of Mrs. Mead ... shot to death ... south of he... night.

Thornewill ... Harry J. Sta... but authoriti... has been pla... ferred questio... ment made a... Coast that h... early Wednes... Mead, former... cado manufac... return as he... had declined ... place.

CALLED FOR

The autho... acted to the home of Mrs. Mead by cries of "Help—killing" which came to telephone company switchboards from the instrument in the home of the woman. They found her dead with a bullet through her head.

The first theory accepted, that of suicide, was definitely discarded today by Sheriff N. P. Sinnott. He declined however to reveal what information had been passed on to him by Chauncey McGovern, San Francisco criminologist who has been working on the case.

MAN DELAY INQUEST

Sheriff Sinnott said he considers the evidence of such import that it may delay the scheduled inquest into the death of the woman on next Tuesday.

Thornewill, who has been operating a fleet of drayage trucks in the county, said that he had placed Mrs. Mead in a closet in her home before he left in order to prevent her from accompanying him to Santa Cruz and that he had ridden into town in a hired machine.

The fact that a blond hair was found between the fingers of the dead woman was still being discussed by authorities today. Her hair was dark and Thornewill's is fair.

GARAGES BOMBED IN CHICAGO WAR OF TAXI FIRMS

CHICAGO, Sept. 30 (A.P.) — Two Yellow Cab company garages were bombed simultaneously tonight. Police fear the outrages are reprisals for the fatal shooting last week of a Checker taxicab driver by a Yellow Cab chauffeur.

No one was reported injured in the first police information. The two garages, however, were said to have been wrecked. Both are on the North Side; one is an exclusive residential district and the other is one of the most prosperous business districts.

POLICE ATTEND SCHOOL TO LEARN ABOUT LAWS

EVANSTON, Ill., Sept. 30 (A.P.)—The forces of law in Evanston want to know the whys and wherefores of their business.

Five members of the police department and a justice of the peace are going to law school. Policewoman Georgiana Jaul is at the head of the class. She begins this fall her senior year in law school. Policeman Critt Jarvis has mastered one year of legal study and soon will take up the second. Three other "coppers," Edward Conen, Herman Cohen and Frank Kreml, are about to begin a full course in law.

MAYOR LOOKS 'EM OVER; THEY'RE OKEY

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 30.—There is nothing obscene in the unadorned limbs and bodies of French chorus girls as long as they expose only on posters, Mayor H. E. Hall ruled today in suppressing Miss Elsie Janis' city concert tonight. Mr. Hall spoke in response to protests of the Public Welfare Federation, from which Miss Janis withdrew.
