Interviewed W. Ronald Benson

TRICRESYL PHOSPHATE: As Ron promised me, December 21, he tried to see Ole Bardhal about the conversion of their automatic transmission fluid additive from Aroclor 1232 to Tricresyl Phosphate but Ole was away. In all probability, they will not need any Tricresyl on the West Coast until June or July but he will follow with Mr. Bardahl next week and try to line up some business for their St. Louis and Boston operations. I will follow again later in the month.
