Dear Denise:

Enclosed is the list of Krummrich workers who were assigned chloracne scores and an explanation of the column headings, as provided by Marilyn Fingerhut at NIOSH. In her cover letter to me, she stated that NIOSH was still conducting quality control procedures and that there may be minor changes to the list. Furthermore, I gathered from our meeting with her last Friday that NIOSH would like to be given credit for this work, if Northwestern chooses to use the chloracne scores in their study. I think you will agree with me that referencing NIOSH's work would be appropriate.

Sincerely,

Terry L. Leet
