over standing up for Menlo. The ty for point was no good and the game ended at 12-6 in favor of the Menlo boys

For the starting lineup Nemson used Don Weber and Max Kelly at ends Maurice Galasso and Carl Hodson at guards, Adrian Smeltzer and Jim Willoughby at tackles, and Lewis Mulkay at center

In the backfield were Warren Lugill at quarter, Terrill Moss and Dorsey Bosserman at the halfback spots, and Roger Brown at full

Also seeing action for the Breakers were Gordon Marsh, Bert Hicks, Bud Feagan, Chuck Spratt, Gene Neves, Ed Nichols, Frank Castro, Vince Selbicky, Keith Lowery Don Wright, and Lee Dodd.

During the game Adrian Smeltzer and Maurice Galasso were injured slightly, but both were able to go back into the game

Flight No. 17 Warren Clear won from C R Frantz, Los Angeles, 1-up.

a beautiful approach shot by Silva on the final green Young Barteau eliminated Coleman on the 17th after taking a commanding three-up lead at the end of 14 holes Earlier, Barteau won from fellow townsman Ernie Pelper Jr, 2-1

Rosburg, former Stanford University golfer, moved ahead of Hixon when the latter missed a six-foot putt on the 17th The deliberate Hardwicke eliminated Jack Barteau on the 17th too, on the strength of a near-perfect approach

The finals will be played tomorrow first half ended with the score 12-0 in favor of Carmel, with the Padre conversion attempts unsuccessful

The final Carmel tally came in the second half after the ball was driven from the 50 to the 12 and Walt Frey scored

The rest of the second half was San Jose's show and they scored in the fourth quarter Calhoun took the ball over from the 13 yard line after bringing it there from the 40 Calhoun was the best back on the field

When the San Jose team had the ball and it was fourth down and five to go and in a situation where any other team would have punted, they just gave the ball to Calhoun and he would go for a first down

The best Carmel defensive men were Jack Belangee and Floyd Adams who were highly instrumental in stopping Calhoun The best offensive players were Dick Sumner and Howard DeAmaral whose blocking helped the backs get free for long gains.

Tom Handley and Walt Frey take the honors for turning in the best running for the Padres Legare McNeil ran back the San Jose kickoff in the fourth quarter 70 yards which put the Carmel team in a good position to score
