JFK To Mrs FDR

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Kennedy has extended congratulations to Mrs Eleanor Roosevelt on her 77th birthday. The message was made public. She was 77 yesterday.

Know Your Fire

A Vallejo man who spent [illegible] at Sacramento [illegible] fire [illegible] but that their education is strictly de- [illegible] who [illegible] a fire [illegible] and [illegible] said [illegible] one [illegible] years.

An [illegible] doorsman Captain Fitzgerald spends his spare time [illegible] and doing [illegible] work.

He lives with his wife Pauline at 20 [illegible] Loma. His parents both live in Vallejo, his father a retired [illegible] at the Mare Island Naval Shipyard.

FitzGerald was born in Santa Rosa and first came to Vallejo as a child and lived here from 1917 to 1921 and then returned in 1926 and has lived here ever since. Prior to joining the department he worked as a truck driver in the Bay Area.

He has a sister living in Sacramento a sister here and a brother who is a Vallejo postman. The FitzGeralds have two daughters, Mrs Geraldine Cook, of Oakland, and Mrs Louise Welsh of Germany.

"During the time I've been a fireman I hav[illegible] anything too har[illegible] fered some mi[illegible] that's about it."
