The cost of fires was pointed out by Alsgren to be 15 per capita in the United States, the greatest per capita cost of any nation in the world, the total annual fire cost to this country being $521,000,000 annually. The startling fact that five churches and five schools are daily burned, was an average in the United States brought home to the audience the need for a well equipped and supervised fire department.

Wallace Moody, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Moody, sang a special song that he had composed especially for the occasion.

Members of the One Hundred Percent club and their friends are looking forward to the "tacky party" to be given Monday evening.
