Trial lawyers announce essay contest

"Occupational Carcinogenesis and the Statutes of Limitation: Competing National Goals" is the topic of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America's Ninth Annual Environmental Law Essay Contest.

All accredited law schools are invited to participate by selecting a local winner at their school who will receive $100, and who will then compete to be among the three national winners, each of whom receives $500.

Entries for the contest must be postmarked no later than April 13, 1970. All inquiries regarding the contest should be addressed to: Barbara A. Stein, National Coordinator Environmental Law Essay Contest, ATLA, 1050 31st St., NW, Washington, D.C., 20007, (202) 965-3500.
