ON ESCONDIDO COUNTRY CLUB

ESCONDIDO, April 13 (Special.)—In an effort to complete the undertaking within 90 days H. D. Bouzey, to whom the contract has been awarded, has commenced work on the erection of a club house for the Escondido Country club on the club's property west of the city.

It will be a rock faced structure of one story, with basement. The ground floor will be devoted to an assembly room, kitchen and other halls and the basement will be equipped with baths, lockers and lavatories.

The dimensions of the building will be 74 by 42 feet. It is hoped to have the dedication ceremonies July Fourth.

The club has a membership of 96. The club house will be lighted from the system of the San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric company.

PIONEER HOME BUILDER MOVES

C. N. Woodworth, [illegible] is known among [illegible] as the father of the [illegible] home [illegible] in San Diego, removed into larger [illegible] at 902 Second street.

"During seven [illegible] so long at the old [illegible] reluctant about [illegible] Woodworth. "But [illegible] the old [illegible] building floor [illegible] see the growth of San Diego. We made larger quarters [illegible] order to [illegible] the [illegible] needs of [illegible] tion renders [illegible]

We have [illegible] success [illegible] have [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]