NAPA MUFFLERS & SHOCKS WINS 1985 "SPIRIT OF NAPA" AWARD

The "Spirit of NAPA" award, an honor bestowed upon just one NAPA manufacturer each year in salute of overall excellence, was presented to NAPA Mufflers & Shocks at the 1985 NAPA Annual Meeting held in Atlanta, Georgia.

NAPA Mufflers & Shocks won the award based on nominations by each of NAPA's 73 Distribution Centers. Each Distribution Center nominates the one NAPA Manufacturer it feels has exhibited overall excellence throughout the year in such areas as: effective use of manpower, highest quality products, helpful jobber sales-building programs, training and continuing education programs, merchandising capabilities, easy-to-use catalogs and strong support at every possible level.

This is the first time NAPA Mufflers & Shocks has won the "Spirit of NAPA" award. NAPA Mufflers & Shocks, a division of Tenneco Automotive and headquartered in Bannockburn, Illinois, supplies NAPA with a full line of exhaust systems, shock absorbers and ride control equipment.
