The 18th annual University of the Pacific Philosophy Institute will be held at Asilomar beginning June 17.

Applications for enrollment are still being accepted, according to Dr. William Nietmann, professor of philosophy at Pacific and director of the institute. Seminars and study sessions, 5, 9, 13, 17 and 21 days in duration, will be held beginning June 17, 21, 25, 29 and July 3.

Fourteen philosophers from throughout the nation will participate in this year's institute, which, according to Dr. Nietmann, will "study the problem of novelty, including inquiry into conditions for revitalization of culture, history and art." Although credit is optional, up to six units of university credit may be earned.

Details and an enrollment form may be obtained by writing to Nietmann, University of the Pacific, Stockton.

Schrade Asks Gov. Brown Impeachment

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Sen. Jack Schrade (R-El Cajon) has asked the legislative counsel to look into the possibility of impeachment proceedings against Gov. Edmund G. Brown for his handling of the farm labor crisis and the situation at the University of California.

Schrade, in an interview with a Chico television station, said he wants Brown removed from office "for fumbling and bumbling. . .in the mishandling of the bracero program and the mess at Berkeley."

In Washington earlier this week, Rep. James Utt (R-Calif) called upon California state legislators from his district to launch impeachment proceedings against Brown because of the farm labor situation.

Monterey Camps Registration

Registration is being taken now for the Monterey Recreation Department's two summer camps —Quien Sabe and Whispering Pines.

Quien Sabe at Palo Colorado Canyon is for children aged 8½ to 14. Three week-long sessions are planned, on June 21-25, June 28-July 2, and July 5-9.

The Whispering Pine program is a day camp for youngsters aged 5 to 9. Sessions are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily in one-week sessions, held from June 21 through the week of Aug. 9. An overnight campout is a feature of the day camp program each week. The camp is held at Whispering Pines Park on Pacific street in Monterey.

Fee for Camp Qien Sabe, including all food and transportation to and from Monterey, is $22 for Monterey residents and $24 for non-residents. Fee for day camp is $8 or $10.

Registrations for Quien Sabe will be made in the order received and fees may be paid by mail or in person. For day camp, registration must be made in person at the recreation office, 546 Dutra St.

Information on both programs may be obtained by calling the recreation department, 372-8121, Ext. 16.

Seaside Aid Calls

A resuscitator squad of the Seaside Fire Department was called to 1200 La Salle Ave. at 9:59 a.m. yesterday when Joey Hamill, 3, suffered fever convulsions. The child was treated, then taken with his mother, Mrs. Peggy Hamill, to Fort Ord Hospital.

Ralph C. Price, 11, was brought to the fire station at 3:35 p.m. yesterday by his father, Ralph A. Price Jr. of 1674 Luzern St., when he suffered an elbow laceration from a fall off his bicycle. He was given first aid and a check by a physician advised.

Outlaw Slot Machines

ROME (AP) — Parliament this week outlawed slot machines. It ordered fines up to $72 and prison sentences of one month to two years for violators.
