then we can perhaps let the jury go earlier today.

MR. IGNATOWSKI: Can we have a few moments to get it together?

THE COURT: Sure.

If you would like to stand and stretch, feel free to do so, ladies and gentlemen.

(Whereupon, pause.)

THE COURT: Ready to proceed, counsel?

MR. SHELLENBERGER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Very well, all of the jurors are back and ready to proceed.

MR. SHELLENBERGER: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. SHELLENBERGER: Your Honor, I will be asking the questions and Mr. Ignatowski will be doing the answers, and there are some counter designations from the defense.

This is the deposition of James Howard Neary, August 18th, 1987. It is titled in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, In Re: Personal Injury Asbestos Case.
