tile, dancers, incense-burners, fruit-bearers and princesses of Andalusia will move on their gay way to the court of the palace. Before the thrones of the queens, the dances and stunts are staged, including the bull fight, with its array of matadors, picadors and bandilleros. Incidentally, the bull was brought over today from San Francisco in the automobile of Mrs. C. E. Hume, and will be brought to the rehearsal this evening with the tigers that will accompany Sherheradaze—Mrs. William Thornton White—on her approach to her throne.

DOLL TRAGEDY, TOO

Two of the principal divertisements before the court of queens will be the "Tragedy of the French Doll," in which Mrs. Frances Redman is the star, Raymond Shock the lover, Frank Roller the jealous husband, and Walter Reis the exhibitor, and the slave dance, in which Miss Margaret Mitchell and Dr. Gaylord Mitchell are the principals.

In the Spanish fete scene, Mrs. Harold Havens and Captain Percival M. Fielding have the motif dance, she as Otero and he as Don José.

With them will be:

Spanish Senoritas—Mrs. F. L. Ditman, Mrs. C. L. Rochester, Mrs. D. F. Reynes, Mrs. George Banta Jr., Mrs. M. W. Craft, Mrs. Paul Belser, Mrs. Mabel Price, Miss Doris S. Lowell, Miss Ruth G. Riley, Miss Myra Gaure, Miss Florence E. Dean, Miss Dorothy Plummer, Mrs. E. L. Harbert, Mrs. Charles Triebell.

Spanish Dancers from Navarre—Mrs. Frank A. Roller, Mrs. John Roland Calder, Miss Marion Small, Miss Marion Meyers, Miss Isla Belcher, Miss Kathryn Ann Fox, Miss Helen Switzer, Mrs. Ross Mahon, Mrs. Guy Witter, Mrs. Paul de Fremery, Edward B. Von Adelung, James H. L'Hommedieu, Willington Switzer, Ross Mahon, Guy Witter, Paul de Fremery.

Gypsy dance, "Teleta the Gypsy".....Miss Virginia Marvin

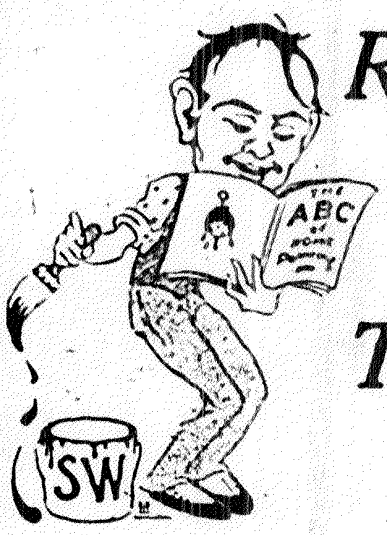
CAST IN STELLAR ROLE

Mrs. Walter Leimert as Sumurun, beloved of Aladdin, will play the star role, dancing her way into the favor of the court.

Joseph Rosborough is cast for the Caliph Haroun-al-Raschid, Walter S. Weeks for Ali Baba, Harrison Clay for the Grand Vizier, and Captain Percival Fielding as Aladdin.

Tomorrow night a rehearsal will be given for all of the dancers, and on Wednesday night the dress ensemble.

Tickets for boxes or seats may be obtained by telephoning to the Baby Hospital booth in the Hotel Oakland.



Read How— Then Paint!

Look over your tables, chairs, screens, shelves, floors, woodwork, picture frames, bathtubs, bedsteads. How many of them are worn?

We have all prepared, ready for the brush, the paint, varnish and enamel which is best adapted to the peculiar nature of the surfaces and the wear that each gets.

These are all Sherwin-Williams goods and the best on the market. Tell us what you want to brighten up and we will give you the right Sherwin-Williams product for doing it.
