THE COURT: We will take care of those matters.

MR. SMITH: While the jury is out, Your Honor, we offer into evidence the defense exhibit we cross-examined Mr. Anderson on.

Ford doesn't have any objection.

MR. WILLIAMS: Not only do we have no objections, Your Honor, I will designate that.

MR. SMITH: I don't have your number.

MR. WILLIAMS: We will get that.

THE COURT: What number is it?

MR. SMITH: It is Plaintiff's Ford 199 dated November 1, 1983. It is offered into evidence.

(Whereupon, Plaintiff's Ford Exhibit Number 199 was received into evidence.)

(Whereupon, jury present -- 2:06 p.m.)

(Whereupon, witness present.)

THE COURT: Please be seated, ladies and gentlemen.

Good afternoon.

THE JURY: Good afternoon.
