Prune Redding, who is on The Netherlands, attended the "Queen's Ball" last evening.

The George Taylors have had as houseguests, Mrs. Taylor's cousin, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Raymond, of Lake Linden, Michigan, and her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perrault of Chibougamau, Canada.

Gen. and Mrs. R. O. Rare were up from Camp Pendleton for a flying visit with Gen. and Mrs. P. L. Underhill. Gen. Rare, who is commander of the 1st Marine Division, plans to retire soon and they will move into their Valley House (the Vollmer Peterson) in July.

The Gloria Alan conducted classes in personal arts are scheduled to begin May 10 at 10 A. M. The four sessions will include a complete individual makeup for each and every student. Miss Alan is contributing her services to the Community Center. Tickets will be available at the Carmel Valley Cleaners daily from 9-5.

Hitch and Eddie Erwin and Dick Jennings opened the trout season by hauling 14 species on opening day, all between 10 and 12 inches. To do this they trekked from San Clemente to Prince's Camp. Hurst also caught a king-size case of poison oak, but says it was well worth it.

May Day, when I was a child, meant dancing on the green in white organdy and getting grass stains on white slippers, making paper May baskets (the handles on mine always came unstuck) and paddling around in the dewy dusk leaving them on doorsteps with little notes of whatever flowers I could find at that season. My only looking tired. I was never queen of the May, either, but I fooled it around a succession of Maypoles. The boys brought this dear old custom vibes and asserted their masculinity by tripping the girls. The girls retaliated with slaps or tears. Afterwards there was ice cream and Nabiscos and more frolics on all sides.

Scroll Won By Pacific Grove Club

On display for all to admire and receive compliments upon is a scroll presented to the Pacific Grove Women's Civic Club.

The scroll reads: "General Federation of Women's Clubs—Fiftieth Anniversary Scroll—presented to—Pacific Grove Woman's Civic Club, Pacific Grove, California—IN RECOGNITION AND APPRECIATION OF DISTINGUISHED SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY AND THE NATION."

The scroll notes that the Pacific Grove club was federated in 1907 and upon the date of the presentation, March 13, 1957 was officially fifty years of age. The handsome scroll, with the insignia "Unity-In-Diversity" bears the signature of Mrs. Robert Ira Cole Prout, president, General Federation of Women's Clubs.

May 10 Tea Will Aid The Center

Playing the good Samaritan by again coming to the aid of the New Monterey Neighborhood Center is the Community Center Auxiliary's planning the public to a silver tea on Friday, May 10, which will be a benefit for the center. In order to carry on and maintain the summer recreational programs at the Center, more funds are necessary, and the Auxiliary, having taken on the community welfare house and program as a project, will realize through the benefit tea a means of aiding the summer schedule.

Opening her charming home on Via Miranda in Monterey, Mrs. Jack Dougherty is providing members and friends and well wishers an opportunity to enjoy a social afternoon as well as a rewarding one. Mrs. Andrew Reinhold is co-chairman with Mrs. Dougherty with members of the Community Center Auxiliary helping with the refreshments. Tea hours will be from 3-5:30 o'clock.

New Grandson

Mrs. Emma Mae Gray of 313 Dela Vina Ave., Monterey, has received word of the birth of her grandson, Don Christopher Pendlay. Son of Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Stevador Don Pendlay, he arrived in Laurel, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kybiz of San Diego are the maternal grandparents.

State Officers at Garden Club Meeting

Mrs. C. C. Henry, president of the California State Garden Club, and Mrs. H. T. Read, second vice president, were honor guests when the Monterey Peninsula Garden Club met to install officers last week.

The new officers are: Peter Kuypers, president; Mrs. Ellen M. Mason, vice president; Mrs. Wallace Lewis, recording secretary, and Col. C. A. DeCamp, treasurer.

Committee chairmen appointed by Mr. Kuypers include Mrs. Frank Timmins, door prizes; Mrs. Lawrence Lyon, hospitality; Mrs. George Baxter, membership; Miss A. Williamson, plant sales; Miss Lucy Mills, publicity; Col. George Baxter, projects; Mrs. John Testa, refreshments.

"World of Insects," a new Walt Disney film, was shown by Frank Shropshire, who substituted for Norvell Gillespie, who was unable to be present. Mrs. Henry, who had just returned from the Miami Council Convention in Florida, reported on that meeting.

The annual Watsonville rose show, held in the gardens of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Marshall, was announced for Sunday, May 5, from 1:30 to 5 p.m.

Also discussed was the forthcoming State Garden Club convention to be held in Monterey May 15 to 18. Four full days of meeting and outings have been planned, including tours of Peninsula gardens. Mrs. C. C. Brockman (FR. 2-5553) has registration forms which should be submitted by May 5.

R. J. Hansen, the vice president is Mrs. W. R. Davis and the new secretary-treasurer is Mrs. W. W. Beckley. Two members who are leaving with their husbands for other duties, Mrs. C. A. Weller and Mrs. R. L. McGhee, were presented parting gifts as mementoes of Monterey.

At the white elephant sale, Mrs. J. F. Stawney acted as auctioneer and proved her talents by making realistic descriptive possessions. Refreshments of sandwiches and cookies were served with coffee at one meeting and a covered dish supper at the second.

Visitors reported: Mrs. B. C. Conner has as her guest her sister, Miss Jerry Christensen of Sacramento. Lt. and Mrs. Norman L. Kaufman of La Mesa had as their houseguests her brother, Frank Cesler of New York City. While he was here the Kaufmans rented him a citeable part of California, the high deciding San Francisco and Disneyland. Cmdr. and Mrs. William C. Stowers have with them Mrs. Stowers' mother, Mrs. W. Allen of Richmond, Va. Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kerbuh of San Francisco were the Monday through Wednesday guests of Prof. and Mrs. Ronen Giel.

William (Billy) Stowers Jr. had a week long celebration for his 10th birthday. On Tuesday he stood treat for his Cub Scout den. On Wednesday there was a family party in his honor. On Thursday he was host at a hamburger supper for neighboring and school friends. To top it off Billy and his family spent the weekend in San Jose with his paternal grandparents who also had a party in his honor.

When Mrs. David Cooper planned to have the EA section wives for their April meeting, she did not know that her daughter Mamie would be exposed to measles. Fortunately no measles and the party was held as scheduled at the Cooper home. The guests Mmes.

Mrs. was the theme for the table decorations, arranged by Mrs. Grider. Her unusual table covering was a Japanese obi of gold brocade with silver thread, centered lengthwise on the table. The centerpiece was a bouquet of delicately tinted pink and white rhododendrons, columbine and sweetpeas mixed with anemones in shades of purple. Directly overhead, ribbon streamers of pink, lavender and blue straighten from ceiling to table in the form of the traditional Maypole. On each side of the centerpiece were silver candelabras with tall candles of palest lavender. Completing the picture was a silver punch bowl at each end of the table and around the edge of the tray on which the punch bowl rested was a ring of tuberoses and stephanotis with rose centers. Presiding over the punch and assisting in serving the refreshments were Mesdames Harold Allen, J. M. Wilson, John LaCava, G. R. Luchetti and Harold Wright.
