local keeper Sunday. The Mines' fielding was rapped and the hitting was all when a score was in sight. Perhaps Fealy was "quite some" defender, although he let his perfect score record very evidently. The San Mateans defeated themselves at any rate.

Although we personally do not care for the conduct and sportsmanship of several individuals on the Oakland ranking, we admit they have a world beating aggregation. Their infield, with Cronin shining out at shortstop, has some class. The outfield purchases repeatedly and furiously at its own offerings throughout the game at close but easy distances. It is a safe bet that McWilliams and Kocher and other local ballplayers will move to more successful officials as a contest in that "neck of the woods."

While we are in a preachy mood, we feel better "get it off" now. That press agent "crowd of two hundred visitors" does prejudice in the "gentlemen's agreement." Ask the collectors, Mr. Smith and Mr. Rogers. Two hundred divided by four would bring a more correct total.

Jack was busy today playing a leading part in granting the 32 young ladies who are candidates for the title "Miss America" in the annual beauty pageant being held "over there" long enough to deny rumors that he is engaged to Miss Estelle Taylor, movie picture actress.

"There is nothing to the idea of an engagement between Miss Taylor and myself—not yet," Dempsey said. "Miss Taylor and I keep constant with the mistress and I have our fighting to look after, so I couldn't marry her for at least a year if I will engaged."
