and waist-length veil and carried a bouquet of white and green orchids with white bouvardia.

The maid of honor was Vera Ellis of San Jose, who wore lilac organdy with a crown and bouquet to match. The bridesmaids were Alma Jessel and Peggy Kyle, both of San Jose. They wore similar ensembles, but in yellow.

Ernie Faltos was the best man

9:30 a.m. in the church.

The Rev. Arthur W. Bailey, pastor of the church, will talk on "The Place of Religion in Home Training."

PIANO LESSONS

Theory - Harmony
Beginners in Group and Single
Mrs. J. Tomasevich
2720 Bryant St. DA 2-9641

a MO
Furnished

You see them here—at your fingertips—America's newest, smartest colors for walls, woodwork, ceilings.

Use them—to create lovely rooms like you see in magazines! FREE—color swatches to take home.

See Fuller's

JEWEL CASE

Decorator-styled Deep Tones—
Rich Shades—Sunny Tints—
By the Dozens

MORE COLORS - MORE DECORATING HELP

Irvine's

AT 127 LYTTON DAvenport 2-6773
PALO ALTO

Daily Palo Alto Times SEP 2, 1949 P-8