Attention: Mr. W. Wayne Withers, Company Counsel

SUBJECT: JACKSON vs. MONSANTO

Dear Wayne:

This letter will serve to acknowledge receipt of your letter of February 26, 1976, together with its various enclosures. In reviewing this material, it would appear that the latest of the "Ohio silo" cases involves property damage that occurred in late 1975 and/or early 1976. In either case, the property damage occurred well after the termination of your coverage with this company on March 1, 1971. I appreciate the fact that you are advising us as a precautionary measure, and in accordance with our prior mode of handling on these cases, we will undertake no action until such time as either you or the Travelers indicates to us that property damage did occur during our policy period.

Very truly yours,

William E Urmston
