A Never.
Q Did they ever adopt any specific standards specific to asbestos?
A No. No.
Q Other than the efforts to oppose the ban on asbestos in friction products, do you recall the FMSI ever opposing any standards that were being established or recommended by some other entity --
MR. BOATTI: Objection.
MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection.
MR. MENDRZYCKI: Objection.
BY MR. PURCELL:
Q -- regarding asbestos? You may respond.
A No.
Q If I could direct your attention back to Exhibit C for just a couple of more questions, I believe it's sitting over there Mr. Drislane, I'm sorry.
A Is this is the history?
Q There you go. This is the history you prepared.
On page 19 there is referenced there something called the Quality Control Subcommittee having been organized to study compliance sampling relating to the 1972 OSHA guidelines for asbestos. Do you see that at the top of the
