and I will review those this afternoon and go over them as we discuss them.

Anything further before we let you go for lunch?

MR. WILLIAMS: I don't think so, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Plaintiffs?

MR. SMITH: I am sorry, Your Honor, he designated one passage of a deposition and I am not sure if Mr. Williams is going to withdraw it now, of Mr. Harold Grewe's deposition.

MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, if I could think about that over lunch.

THE COURT: You may.

MR. SMITH: Fair enough.

THE COURT: Counsel, I will see you then. If you will be in your seats at 5 to 2:00, we will resume at 2 o'clock.

(Whereupon, a luncheon recess was taken -- 12:40 p.m.)

(Whereupon, afternoon session -- 2:05 p.m.)
