

Growers Elect Delegates

A well attended meeting of the Prune and Apricot Growers of this vicinity was held at the Friendly Inn Wednesday evening, when delegates were elected to represent this district at the meeting in San Jose to elect a voting board for the association. Robert Britton presided and W. G. Rhoades was secretary. The meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman soon after the meeting of May 28th in San Jose, to effect a permanent organization. Delegates were elected as follows:

Morgan Hill—J. C. Lewis and Geo. A. Tallmon. James Milne, alternate.
Machado—Robert Britton and J. C. Petersen. J. H. Harkness, alternate.
Burnett—O. W. Newman and W. G. Rhoades. L. Dauberg, alternate.
Uvas—Oliver Bradley and J. F. Smith. F. Scheidegger, alternate.

Santa Clara County

Its early history, stories of the pioneer families, its rapid growth and present prosperity are all a part of the Story of Santa Clara County by Evelyn Wells. It starts in the 'The Call Monday, May 20. A chapter every day.

Business Locals

O. K. Estes, attorney-at-law and notary public.
