The Automotive Repair Trades Joint Apprenticeship Committee is headed by Ernest H. Vernon of the IAM's Automotive Machinists Union Local 1546 as chairman and John Janusch of Automotive Industries, Inc., as secretary.

Union representatives include George Thomas, Carl Englund, Ed Merritt, DeWayne Williams and Harry Lear. The employer representatives include Fred Jacobsen, Clyde Mayo, Ed Slusser, Raymond Harvey, A. Glen Gaffney and Len Ball.

Serving as co-ordinators are Loren Stevens of Laney Trade and Technical Institute, Oakland; Walter Miller of the Berkeley Trade School, David J. Dickie of Hayward Technical School, Lyle Pember of Contra Costa Junior College and Charles Bromley of Alameda High School.

PLANNING

A newlywed filling out his income tax return listed a deduction of $500 for his wife. In the section for exemption claimed for children he penciled the notation, "Watch this space!"—Future.
