Mrs. Bertha M. Rice of Saratoga furnished the inspiration for the decoration at the Wednesday Garden court luncheon at the Palace hotel in San Francisco on Wednesday.

The theme of the decoration was a woodland scene.

Mrs. George Keily of San Francisco and Madame Cecile Sorbier were joint hostesses at the table at which Mrs. Rice was one of the honor guests.

Mrs. Jerome A. Vernazza of San Francisco will be hostess to the San Francisco Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon national honor music sorority, on Saturday, April 19. Members of the group from San Francisco, east bay and peninsula will meet for dessert luncheon at one-thirty.

Newly elected officers for the coming year will be installed at that time by Mrs. Leslie M. Johnson of Hall-Inverough, past national officer of Mu Phi Epsilon.

The program for the afternoon will be a duo piano number by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Thornburg and review of the "Record Book" by David Hall, to be given by Mrs. Stuart McKee.

Alumnae members of Mu Phi Epsilon from this vicinity are the Mesdames Alma Andrews, Paul Cook, Stuart McKee, Neil Schellbach, Roy Trogden, and the Misses Winifred Forbes, Meta Goldsmith, Beziana Kalas, Helen Palmer, Frances Robinson, Bernice Rose, Alma Williams and Katherine Wood.

Last evening delegates and hostesses attended the water extravaganza at the college pool, spectacular aquatic show put on by the coeds. "Isles of the Pacific" was theme of the brilliant swimming exhibition, and climax was formation of a three-pointed star by three kayaks.
