Dr. J. J. Hogan, Edward Dinkelspiel of Suisun, chairman of the county central committee, and City Attorney Russell F. O'Hara, who heads the Vallejo Hoover-Curtis club, are satisfied the county will be in the Hoover column. They are cautious in their claims when it comes to figures, but the most conservative estimate gives Vallejo to Hoover by at least 500 votes.

POLL AT NAVY YARD

Democrats here claim a recent poll of sentiment among workers at the Mare Island navy yard showed them two to one for Smith. Yet it was a republican congress which authorized the construction of the cruiser and submarine now being built at the yard. The yard's present payroll is declared to be $26,000 a day, with 4200 men employed. There is work ahead, under the republican administration's navy plans, to keep the yard busy for four years to come. Vallejo's prosperity is dependent on navy yard activities, a republican congressman, Representative Charles F. Curry, has been the yard's most influential champion at Washington, but the fear exists, in spite of this, that the future may see a curtailment of naval construction activities here.

Whatever the sentiment now among workers at the yard, before election day they will be apt to consider the local effects of a democratic administration at Washington. It is being pointed out that Curry's influence would wane with a democrat in the White House. On the 18th amendment or the Volstead act, that congress will remain dry no matter who is elected president, is still to be driven home in the campaign arguments.

The prevailing issue here, in the last analysis, should be Vallejo's gave Hoover an adverse vote.

The campaigning here is of necessity along quiet lines, for a navy yard order prohibits any political activity, even to the wearing of a badge, among employes or members of their families.

MORE MEN CALLED

A call was issued yesterday at Mare Island for 21 men. The call was for men registered at the yard, including one fireman, ten shipfitters' helpers and ten laborers.
